

Book Club Questions for Things We Left Behind by Lucy Score

1. The book's title, "Things We Left Behind," suggests that the characters have unresolved issues from their past. How do Lucian and Sloane's past experiences shape their behavior and choices throughout the story?
2. The relationship between Lucian and Sloane evolves from enemies to lovers. What were the key turning points in their relationship, and how did their feelings change over time? Were there moments that stood out to you as particularly significant in their journey to love?
3. Both Lucian and Sloane have secrets from their past that have haunted them for years. How do these secrets affect their decisions and interactions with each other? Were you surprised by the revelations about their past?
4. The book is set in the small town of Knockemout, Virginia. How does the small-town setting influence the story and the characters' relationships? Are there any specific moments or scenes that highlight the importance of the town in the narrative?
5. One of the themes in the book is the idea of protection and the lengths to which Lucian is willing to go to keep Sloane safe. How does this theme manifest in their relationship, and how do their views on protection evolve throughout the story?
6. The book contains a mix of steamy romance, humor, and emotional depth. Which aspects of the story did you enjoy the most, and why? Were there any particular scenes or moments that stood out to you?
7. The book is the third and final installment in the Knockemout series. How does it compare to the previous books in the series, in terms of character development, romance, and overall satisfaction? Do you think it provided a fitting conclusion to the series?
8. Throughout the story, both Sloane and Lucian have well-defined personalities and character traits. How do their individual personalities contribute to the dynamic of their relationship and the overall plot? Were there moments where their personalities clashed or complemented each other in unexpected ways?
9. The book explores the themes of love and family. How do the characters' views on love and family evolve throughout the story? Are there any specific scenes or interactions that showcase the importance of these themes?
10. Lucian is depicted as a wealthy and successful businessman, while Sloane is a small-town librarian. How do their differing backgrounds and social statuses impact their relationship and the challenges they face as a couple? How do they bridge the gap between their worlds?

11. The story incorporates elements of humor and banter between the characters. Can you identify some of your favorite humorous moments or witty exchanges in the book? How did these moments enhance your reading experience?
12. The story also incorporates elements of suspense. Did you find the suspenseful elements engaging, or did you have more emotional investment in the romance and character development?
13. In the book, Lucian and Sloane must confront their past and their feelings for each other. What lessons do you think they learn throughout their journey, both individually and as a couple?
14. The book touches on the theme of forgiveness. How do forgiveness and reconciliation play a role in the characters' lives, and what do you think the author is trying to convey about these themes?
15. Finally, if you've read other books by Lucy Score, how does this one compare to her previous works? Would you recommend this book to fans of her writing, and why?